Introducing NEO Pro 9.0 from Caelo Software

Outlook the way it should be!

All the features you need to solve your email overload

Also spending too much time on your emails?

Too many hours are wasted each day dealing with too many unimportant emails. Prioritizing, filing and dealing with messages – most of it is of little added value.

NEO Pro now automatically organizes your emails as they come in – so you don't have to. You can now focus on those emails that really matter and leave the rest to NEO Pro.

Need to find a message? It's a breeze using NEO Pro's automatic Virtual Folder structure and lightning fast indexed Search facility. Never without your messages anymore – they are at your fingertips all the time.

Exactly how it should be!

A major breakthrough in email productivity

Caelo Software not only provides the necessary technology to truly solve your email overload. Combining NEO Pro with the best time-management workflow principles will revolutionize your daily email activities. Saving up to 2 hours per day – reducing your email related stress levels with on average 50% – and keeping you better than ever in control over your emails.

This Email Efficiency Support, to help you get the maximum out of your NEO Pro, is now provided free of charge on www.emailorganizer.com.
